

New kids on the block

Two new shops open in downtown Mansfield

Glee Gifts out to make gift buying a breeze for busy women

BY MICHAEL GELBWASSER
SUN CHRONICLE STAFF

MANSFIELD

A new downtown gift shop wants to make local women's wishes come true.

Glee Gifts will choose items from wish lists when spouses and boyfriends shop for their partner.

Belts of pins and beads, Naughty But Nice fortune cookies and a variety of scented soaps are among the items that women want, but are hard to outside Boston and Providence, Glee Gifts owners and Mansfield residents Ann Foley-Collins and Nadine Miller say.

The shelves at 266 North Main St. will feature such products.

"We decided that a fun, eclectic, hip women's store is what Mansfield needed," Foley-Collins said. "There's a lot of women's stores around here, but nothing with an edge. Someone has a great piece of jewelry, and someone says, 'Where did you get that?'"

Foley-Collins and Miller recently attended the New York Gift Show, perusing every booth for items to stock.